New Zealander Induction into the Hall of Fame – Mr Choie Sew Hoy

CHOIE SEW HOY (1838-1901) – A RECOGNITION OF BUSINESS CONTRIBUTION

Two Otago business founders from the late 19th century have been honoured posthumously with their induction into the New Zealand Business Hall of Fame.

The Sew Hoy family name and Methven tap company have for generations been synonymous with Dunedin business interests. Choie Sew Hoy and George Methven were inducted into the Hall of Fame. Otago's Sir Eion Edgar, a Business Hall of Fame laureate and also head of its selection panel, said the contribution by Methven and the Sew Hoy family to New Zealand had been significant.

Mr Sew Hoy immigrated to New Zealand in 1868 at the invitation of the Otago Chamber of Commerce with other Cantonese gold-seekers.

Mr Sew Hoy opened a Dunedin store in 1875 and developed a successful importing business, delivering Chinese goods to the goldfield stores. He became a prominent leader of Otago Chinese miners and had 11 known mining interests, most notably in gold dredging.

In 1887 he acquired 140 acres (57ha) at Big Beach, a gold-bearing flat of about 250 acres on the Shotover River, before forming the Shotover Big Beach Gold Mining Company in 1888, which became the principal New Zealand gold-dredging company until 1897. Its dredge became the prototype for the New Zealand gold dredge and was the leading gold-dredging design in the world.

Justin Sew Hoy accepted the honour on behalf of the Sew Hoy family.

Donald Sew Hoy and family attended the Business Hall of Fame Gala dinner on Thursday 27 July 2017 at the Langham Hotel to formally receive the Laureate honour for his great grandfather.

Mrs Winnie Ding (great Granddaughter) and Rhonda Ding (great great granddaughter) Canterbury branch Secretary are descendants of the famous pioneer Choie Sew Hoy.

Read attached insert for further enlightenment of Mr Choie Sew Hoy's journey.

Later in October, NZCA Canterbury will present a dissertation on the life of Choie Sew Hoy from a notable family member to acknowledge his contribution in the Chinese community.

Chinese Poll Tax Heritage Trust appoints Trustees

Eight current CPTHT trustees, all of whom are descended from original poll tax payers. Kai-Shek Luey, Melissa Wong, Virginia Chong, Liz Ngan, Richard Leung, Malcolm Wong, Mark Ngan Kee and Paul Chin

Hon Judith Collins, Minister for Ethnic Communities appointed new trustees for the Chinese Poll Tax Heritage Trust (CPTHT). Trustees on board from 15th May 2017 to 14th May 2020.

The Chinese Poll Tax Heritage Trust (CPTHT) was established in 2004. Prior to this the New Zealand government formally apologised to the poll tax payers and their descendants in 2002, for the actions of previous governments that imposed a poll tax on Chinese persons entering New Zealand, and in enacting other discriminatory statutes.

Poll tax payers and their descendants comprise the 'early settler' Chinese community. A community linked by family and village networks, and common geographic origin (all come from a cluster of counties in the south of Guangdong [Canton] province). From 1866 to 1960 all Chinese New Zealanders were part of this community. Immigration policy changes from 1960 onwards led to the migration of Chinese people unconnected to the early settler community.

The CPTHT was paid $5 million as a gesture of reconciliation in support of the formal apology.

The CPTHT was established in 2004 as a gesture of goodwill to the descendants of poll tax payers in recognition of the hardship caused. Administered by the Department of Internal Affairs and is intended as a gesture of goodwill to poll tax payers, their descendants and future generations.

The Trust aims to promote the preservation of Chinese New Zealand history, in particular, an awareness of the contributions made by the early Chinese settlers. The Trust also seeks to create understanding in the wider Chinese community and New Zealand society as a whole. The Trust achieves this by making grants and commissioning works and encourages members of the Chinese poll tax descendant community and members of the wider community to seek funding from the Trust for suitable projects.

Melissa Wong (NZCA Canterbury member) is the youngest board member and is only one of two trustees to be selected from the South Island. Melissa is honoured to be selected for this role and will fulfill these commitments alongside her existing community work.

Congratulations to Melissa and the new Trustees elected onto the Board. Trustee members formed from representatives and leaders of the New Zealand Chinese Association.

Obituary

It is with much sadness we report the passing of the following members:

Observance tribute to:

Mrs Eva Lay (28th January 2017)

An highly respected pass committee member actively involved as a Chinese Language Teacher. Eva inspired children with Chinese cultural dances. Music and singing were her passion where she taught many children through the years in her Chinese classes. She was dearly loved by all the children who crossed her path.

She donated her generous time and effort in activities on the social organising team at festival functions held at the association Hall. An advocate in organising children activities such as the annual Chinese Christmas picnics.

NZCA Canterbury acknowledged Eva for her dedication and commitment and was awarded onto the NZCA Canterbury Honours Board for outstanding services in 2007.

Her time on the committee goes well and beyond her duties contributing to her generous community spirit of giving and volunteering.

She was the number one supporter of all her children and grandchildren at the annual NZCA Sports tournaments.

Devoted and dearly loved mother of Karina & Darryl, treasured Grandma of Kyle and Nathan.

Dr Ting On To PhD (15th August 2017)

In his 93rd year. Cherished husband of Mo Ching, adored and respected father and father-in-law of James and Ruby, Susan and Henry and Leah and Darren. A much loved Granddad of all his grandchildren.

An intellect dedicating his work as a scholar and businessman. Dr To has shown us the importance of belonging among the Chinese people to raise the awareness of community spirit. His supported our community during his hardworking days at his Chinese merchandising business, “Sun Tai” to supply our community with the best quality products for our Chinese festival functions.

With this, he achieved a loving partnership with Mrs Mo Ching to raise a beautiful family and installed good values in education and hard work. This is evidence with James, who has contributed and dedicated his work as the National Secretary of the New Zealand Chinese Association over many years.

Dr To has shown us his generosity of giving through donating funds towards the extension to the upstairs room at the Chinese Association Hall.

Erected is the family plaque above the room known as “the Library”.

We give thanks to Dr Ting On To for his dedication and contributions towards our Chinese Association.

Mr Jack Wai Yee (17th August 2017)
